Elaine Hathaway Takes Bridal Vows

At an evening ceremony in the Calvary Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, Elaine Hathaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hathaway, 23709 Lucille Ave., Torrance, became the bride of Robert Allen Edborg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl DeFord, 2903 Ashmont Ave., Arcadia.

The bride's white, silk organza gown was fashioned as a slim, floor length sheath with embroidery enriching the front panel, a chapel train at the back, long pointed sleeves. A cluster of Stephanotis held her veil. Her bouquet was white roses centered by an orchid.

Maid of honor, Eloise Bower, bridesmaids, Mrs. Bill Hathaway, sister-in-law of the bride, and Dianne DeFord, sister of the bridegroom, all wore pale blue chinazo sheaths and carried white carnations tied with blue ribbons.

Assisting the bridegroom was James Manweiler, Nick Kobzev, Bill Hathaway, brother of the bride, and John Ehlers seated the guests.

At the reception immediately following the ceremony at the church, Mrs. James Willacy attended the guest book, Judy Townsend and Gwen Boyen assisted.

The bride's mother wore a peacock blue sheath and matching jacket. The bride's mother chose an aqua sheath and matching jacket. The newly married couple are both attending Long Beach State College. The bride was graduated from Torrance High School, and her husband from Monrovia-Duarte High School. He is also a graduate of Citrus Jr. College.

After a honeymoon of undisclosed destination, the young couple will make their home in Seal Beach.

Christian Women's Fellowship Install at Church Ceremonies

Using "Hands" as her theme, Mrs. Ed Pietzschke installed the new officers of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church of Torrance at the June 5 meeting.

Mrs. Howard Foster and Mrs. Don Morgan stepped into an oversized picture frame and portrayed the four kinds of Christian hands — worshipful, studying, serving, and friendly, as Mrs. Pietzschke opened the installation ceremony.

A beautiful painting of the Praying Hands graced the worship center and each of the one hundred members present received a praying hands book mark.

Highlight of the ceremony was the receipt of the president's pin by Mrs. Dean Lougee. Mrs. C. H. Thompson, retiring president, made the presentation.

Other officers installed were: Mrs. C. W. Stephens, vice president; Mrs. Jim Richards, secretary; Mrs. Frank Franzen, treasurer; Mrs. Fred Schweigert, director of study; Mrs. Robert Vroman, director of worship; Mrs. C. William Westrick, director of service, and Mrs. Irvin Bishop, director of membership.

Chairmen installed were: Mrs. Fred Schweigert, missionary education; Mrs. C. B. King, world call; Mrs.

Thomas Saine, literature; Mrs. Robert Vroman, spiritual life; Mrs. Jack Waters, stewardship; Mrs. Charles Robison, Christian family life; Mrs. Willford Somers, pianist; Mrs. Alfred Roswell, Christian social relations; Mrs. H. G. Cassell, ecumenical, and Mrs. Grant C. Jones, publicity.

New group leader installed were: Mmes. James Warden, Ralph Adamson, Fred Smith, C. B. King, Frank E. Drake, Phyllis Whobrey, J. B. Mosley, W. L. Johnson, Robert Forsyth, Don Morgan, A. R. Rodepouch.

Mrs. C. H. Thompson was honored with a gift by the C.W.F. members. Before retiring as president, Mrs. Thompson, with Mrs. J. B. Mosley as her co-chairman, planned and co-ordinated a two-day conference for Christian Women's Fellowship presidents at Pacific Palisades Presbyterian Conference Grounds on May 7 and 8. The purpose of this conference was to train the new officers for Christian Women's Fellowship leadership. Mrs. Mosley is also active in the C.W.F. of the First Christian Church of Torrance.

Mrs. Thompson will serve as the Missionary Education chairman of the area board of the Christian Churches of Southern California-Southern Nevada for the 1962-63 term.

Special Meet for Royal Neighbors Next Tuesday

On Tuesday evening the Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors will be hostess camp to the district camp, meeting at the Torrance Woman's Club House, 1422 Engracia Ave.
